Points to note for registration authorisation

Notes on registration authorisation*

1. Registration authorisation is only available for participants to authorise an institution to register for the solo or ensemble categories on their behalf, or authorise a team representative to register for the ensemble category;
2. After logging into the competition's registration system using a Macao One Account and agreeing to these notes, a unique authorisation code valid for the competition this year will be generated for the participant, which can be used to authorise another person to register and pay the fees on their behalf. Participants should keep the authorisation code safely;
3. For the ensemble category, a representative must be authorised by the ensemble members via the 'registration system' and the authorised representative can complete online registration and payment, submit applications, check the scores and written assessment for the ensemble on behalf of the other members. The other members of the ensemble only have the right to check the scores and written assessment.
4. If, for some reason, the solo participants or ensemble representatives are unable to complete online registration and payment, an institution can be authorised via the 'registration system' to proceed with online registration and payment, application submission, and checking of the scores and written assessment via the 'registration system' on their behalf. The solo participants or ensemble representatives still have those rights after they have given such authorisation.
5. The authorised institution must log into the 'registration system' and sign up using their Macao One Account (entity account).
6. The authorised person/institution must agree to the Notes for Registration (including the Rules and Regulations) on behalf of the participant, and the participant should read through the relevant terms and conditions;
7. The participant will be held solely responsible for any information that is omitted or in error, or any further consequences arising from the participant's improper authorisation or a fault made by the authorised party, and the Cultural Affairs Bureau will not assume any responsibility nor accept any relevant appeal. Therefore, to safeguard the rights and interests of participants, they are recommended to complete online registration and payment themselves via the 'registration system'.

* This authorisation cannot be used to collect prizes and awards on the participant's behalf; the relevant authorisation for prize collection needs to be applied for separately beforehand.

Procedures for registration authorisation

Generate the authorisation code → give the code to the authorised party → the authorised party logs into the registration system with their Macao One Account and enters the authorisation code → authorisation complete.

Notes for the authorised party*

1. Each participant has only one unique authorisation code valid for the competition this year, and the authorised person/institution should keep the code safely;
2. The authorised person/institution can complete online registration and payment, submit applications, and check the scores and written assessment on behalf of the participant. The solo participants or ensemble members still have those rights even after they have given such authorisation.
3. For the ensemble category, upon authorisation by ensemble members via the 'registration system', the ensemble representative can complete online registration and payment, submit applications, and check the scores and written assessment for the ensemble on behalf of the other members. The other members of the ensemble only have the right to check the scores and written assessment.
4. The authorised person/institution will declare that they agree to the relevant notes for registration (including the Rules and Regulations) on behalf of the participant, and the authorised person/institution should ensure that the participant themselves have read, acknowledge and agree to the relevant terms and conditions;
5. The participant will be held solely responsible for any information that is omitted or in error, or any further consequences arising from the participant's improper authorisation or a fault made by the authorised party. The Cultural Affairs Bureau will not assume any responsibility nor accept any relevant appeal.

* This authorisation cannot be used to collect prizes or awards on the participant's behalf; the relevant authorisation for prize collection needs to be applied for separately beforehand.
